The Daily Gazetteer.

TUESDAY, AUGUST 22. 1738.

Petersburg, July 26. O. S.

THE News of the last Engagement with the Turks, was brought to the Ruſſian Court by the Baron de Meyendorff, a Captain of the Guards, whom the Count de Munich diſpatch'd with it from his Camp on the 9th of July O S.

The Turks have ſufficiently made appear, that in the Action of the 8th inſt. they did not want Courage, for they attacked the Ruſſians that Day no leſs than four Times; and their Defeat is ſaid to be in great Meaſure owing to a Shower of Grenadoes invented by General Cohorn, the famous Dutch Engineer, and for that reaſon call'd Cohorn's Partridges; and ſome of the Turks who were arm'd with Coats of Mail, had the aſſurance to venture ſo cloſe to the Coſſacks, that the latter ran them through with their Pikes. They loſt a good Number of Perſons of Diſtinction dead on the Field, and a great many Horſes richly accouter'd. The Loſs on our Side is, God be thank'd, very inconſiderable. On the 15th ult. a Ruſſian Officer was burn'd here, who had ſerved in her Imperial Majeſty's Horſe Guards, together with a Jew, aged 70, who by his Suggeſtions had induced that Officer to abjure the Chriſtian Religion and to embrace Judaiſm; an Apoſtacy for which, by the Laws of the Ruſſian Empire, there is no Pardon.

Vienna, Aug. 2. O S. The Imperial Army, by reaſon of the Contagion which makes a great Progreſs in the Bannat of Temiſwaer, is march'd out of the Heart of that Province towards the Danube, and 'tis ſaid there are but 18 or 20,000 Men in it fit for Service, it has ſuffer'd ſo much by fatiguing Marches, Sickneſs, and by Engagements. At the ſame time a great Detachment of the Enemy is advanced to Nagoi, which is but 5 Leagues from Temiſwaer, and the Turks ſeem reſolved to march towards that Place. Whilſt the French, Britiſh and Dutch Miniſters employ themſelves very ſtrenuouſly to bring about a Peace betwixt the Emperor and the Turks, and the King of Great Britain and the States General have for that Purpoſe ſent freſh full Powers to Sir Everard Wykener and M. Calkner, their Miniſters at Conſtantinople: And indeed one may judge of ſome Negotiation on the Carpet for procuring either a Peace or a Truce with the Infidels, by reaſon of the Inactivity of the Grand Vizier, who tho' he has the Command of ſo conſiderable an Army, has been a good while with it at Gladova without making any Motion. 'Tis ſaid, as we have it from very good Intelligence, that the Plague rages in his Army, and carries off above 200 of his Men every Day. If that Prime Miniſter's Inaction may be aſcribed to this Accident, it may eaſily be inferr'd from it, that it will render the Turks the more tractable. Be this as it will, 'tis believed that our Army, when 'tis recover'd from the Fatigues, and has received the Reinforcements that are expected, will go in queſt of the Turks, in order to give them Battle.

SCOTLAND.

Edinburgh, Aug. 14. Thurſday the Rev. Commiſſion had under Conſideration an Appeal from a Sentence of the Presbytery of Stirling, ſuſtaining Robert Banks as Presbytery Elder for the current half Year, who had been elected by the Five, whom the late Aſſembly declared the only Seſſion of Stirling. The Twelve imagined they ſtill had a Right to act till the Aſſembly's Sentence was intimate to them, and therefore complained and appealed; at the ſame time they ſignified their Willingneſs to return to the Church, and retract any Part of that Paper which had given Offence, or ſeemed to import they had juſtified or approved a Seceſſion. It was Matter of Doubt with a great many Reverend and Worthy Members, if it was in the Power of a Commiſſion to explain an Act of Aſſembly, and as by it they were expreſſly tied down not to admit them to the Exerciſe of their Office till they had retracted the whole, they could not ſee a Medium: But mild Meaſures were choſen, becauſe the Aſſembly could not be ſuppoſed to mean a Recantation but of theſe Paſſages that had given Offence; and therefore the Commiſſion agreed to ſuſtain the Sentence of the Presbytery of Stirling, and at the ſame time required the Seſſion to admit the Twelve to the full Exerciſe of their Office, upon their retracting ſo far of that Paper (which they call their Reaſons for not complying with the Synod's Sentence) as imported, or ſeem'd to import a Seceſſion, or an Approbation of a Seceſſion from the Church, or what was contrary to the due Subordination of Eccleſiaſtical Judicatories. The Commiſſion adjourned till November.

This Morning his Grace the Duke of Argyle ſet out for London.

Seiz'd and brought in to the Port of Leith ſince our laſt, by Capt. Stark, Ten Anchors of Brandy; and by Mr. Paterſon, Tide-Surveyor, Four Hogſheads ditto.

Edinburgh, Aug. 15. Thurſday laſt a Whale of a very large Size, was ſeen at Eymouth entangled among the Rocks; the Fiſhermen made immediately at the Prize, and, with Darts and other Inſtruments, managed ſo well as to kill and get her aſhore: She is upwards of 50 Feet long, and is ſaid to become the Property of Sir John Hume, tho' 'tis probable the Admiral will diſpute it.

Laſt Friday Night two Rogues broke the Gardner's Houſe at Roſeburn at the Colt Bridge; they took the Advantage of his Abſence, and perpetrate their Villainy when there was none within Doors but the Wife and two Infants; they bound and gagg'd her, ſearched the Houſe, and carried off what Money they could find. The honeſt People had got together a ſmall Sum to pay their Landlord, which, with the reſt, unhappily fell into the Villains Clutches.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Briſtol, Aug. 19. On Thurſday the 10th of this Inſtant, an Officer of the Hon. Brigadier Harriſon's Regiment waited on Nathaniel Day, Eſq; our Right Worſhipful the Mayor of this City, to give him Notice, that a Detachment of the ſaid Regiment would march into the City the Saturday following, and deſired the uſual Regulata for their Quartering. His Worſhip was pleaſed to tell him, that as one of his Majeſty's Judges (the Hon. Mr. Juſtice Forte/cue Alland) was that Day expect d, in order to open his Commiſſion for holding the Aſſizes of Niſi Prius, he therefore thought it improper to have any Soldiers in Town until the Buſineſs of the Seſſion was over, which would be the Tueſday following; at the ſame time deſiring the Officer to diſpatch a Meſſage to the Commander of thoſe Companies (who were ſome Miles off) to halt till that Time. The ſaid Commander hereupon writing a Letter to his Worſhip, that he was determined at all Events to march his Soldiers into the City by the Time prefix'd, purſuant to his Orders; and accordingly enter'd the City; which being highly reſented, as well on Account of the little Regard paid to the Requeſt of the chief Magiſtrate of ſo great a City, as the incommoding the Inhabitants at ſuch a publick Time (when no Soldiers have been permitted, Time immemorial, to quarter in this City) his Worſhip thought himſelf under an Obligation to make Complaint of this Freedom to the Judges, who ſending for the ſaid Officer, gave him an eſpecial Reprimand for the Liberty he had taken, and join'd with Mr. Mayor in directing him to march all the Soldiers out of the City, and that he would not open his Commiſſion till that Time; and upon Refuſal, was aſſured of a Complaint being made above. After ſome Heſitation, the Drums were ordered to beat to Arms, and all the Soldiers left the City till Wedneſday Morning laſt, when they returned; and we expect the reſt of the Regiment ſuddenly.

The Impreſs for Seamen at this Port is at an Ebb, and the lively Man of War is preparing to ſail.

It has been remark'd, with no little Wonder, that in ſo great a City as this, no more than four Cauſes were try'd at this Aſſizes, which is a ſufficient Demonſtration of the good Harmony at preſent ſubſiſting between the Citizens. One of thoſe Trials was on the Statute againſt Gaming, between a Baker, Plaintiff, and a Butcher, Defendant, both of Lawford's Gate. The Plaintiff brought his Action for upwards of 30 l. which the Defendant had won of him at one Sitting at a favourite Game call'd Huſſel-Cap; and after a ſhort Trial, the Jury gave a Verdict for the Plaintiff, with 40 s. Damages. In order to diſcountenance the Practice of this Vice, my Lord intimated to the Jury the pernicious Conſequences of it, That it was the certain Fore-runner of Deſtruction to every Tradeſman that followed it, which too often drew him from purſuing his honeſt Calling, and not only incapacitated him of diſcharging his reſpective Debts, but was ſometimes the Occaſion of many an unhappy Exit, &c.

LONDON.

We hear that William Gotts, who received Sentence of Death at the laſt Aſſizes in Norfolk for Horſe-ſtealing, was executed laſt Saturday upon the Caſtle-Hill of Norwich. He was a Native of that County, about 25 Years of Age, had been a Smuggler, and deſerted ſeveral Times from the King's Service. On the Night before his Execution he got off his Irons, in order to make his Eſcape.

On Wedneſday the 16th the Races began at Mansfield, when three Horſes ſtarted for the 30 l. Purſe, which was won by Mr. Hyldiard's Bay Gelding, Conſtant Ball. On Thurſday the 10 l. Purſe was won by Mr. Ryley's Black Horſe, Fear Not. And on Friday the 20 l. Purſe was won by Mr. Welbourn's Cheſnut Horſe, Bumper.

We have a certain Account from Ipſwich, that on Saturday laſt a young Fellow, who ſays his Name is John Withers, and pretends he was born at Yarmouth, was taken up there by Mr. Moore who made the famous Muſical Clock, and is committed to the Town Gaol, on Suſpicion of having ſtollen a Gold Watch and other Things from ſome body in Norfolk. It is not improbable but this may be the wicked Wretch who on the 3d Inſtant ſet Fire to the Gentleman's Houſe at Barton-Toft in Norfolk, and during the Surprize and Confuſion made by the Fire, robbed him of ſeveral Things, among which was a Gold Watch.

It is reported, that ſome Days ſince a moſt barbarous and inhuman Murder was committed by two Carpenters upon the Body of a Man in a Publick Houſe at Hempnall in Norfolk, a Town about ſix Miles from Norwich, and the Manner it was done in, is ſaid to have been by falling upon him in a Room which he ſate, and beating and miſuſing him in ſuch a terrible Manner, that even his Private Parts were bruiſed and torn to a moſt ſhocking Degree: The Report goes, that they were locked or bolted into the Room by a 3d Perſon. However the two Principals are abſconded, and if there were any Acceſſaries, it is hoped they may be brought to Juſtice.

Sunday laſt died, aged 93, at Putney in Surry, Capt. William Weſtbury, formerly Captain of a Company in the Royal Regiment of Horſe Guards Blue, but of late Years has lived Retired upon Half Pay.

Yeſterday his Excellency Mr. Hopp, Envoy Extraordinary from the States of Holland, gave a Grand Entertainment to ſeveral Perſons of Diſtinction, at his Houſe in Burlington Gardens, on account of its being the Birth-day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Orange, who then entered into the 28th Year of his Age.

The Rev. Mr. Webſter, M. A. is preſented by his Grace the Lord Archbiſhop of York to the Vicarage of Bilſdale, in the County and Dioceſe of York, void by the Death of the laſt Incumbent.

On Thurſday next the Juſtices of the Peace for the City and Liberty of Weſtminſter will meet at Weſtminſter-Hall, purſuant to their laſt Adjournment.

On Saturday laſt an elderly Woman was found drowned in the Baſon, late belonging to the York Buildings Company at Mary-le-Bone.

The only ſhort and infallible Cure

For that reigning Diſeaſe the SCURVY, and all Scorbutick Humours, tho' arrived to the higheſt and moſt inveterate Degree, and of ever ſo many Years ſtanding, and that without any ſenſible Evacuation or the leaſt Purging, which by an unaccountable Infatuation is generally adviſed, although always found rather to increaſe than confirm the Scurvy than cure it.

By the ſo much famed and moſt pleaſant Chymical DROPS,

WHICH, without the leaſt Trouble or Confinement, or any Diſorder whatever, does entirely eradicate at the true Cauſe of the Scurvy, and intirely deſtroy it, and all Scorbutick Humours and Effects, Root and Branch, ſo as never to return again, as many Thouſands of both Sexes have experienced; and as all who take them in 3 Days time will be convinced of; they almoſt inſtantly alter the morbid State of the juices, purify the Blood, ſweeten all the Fluids, cleanſe them from Impurities, directly clear the whole Habit from all Spots, Blotches, Pimples, blue Marks, Itchings, foul Eruptions, or Breakings out, Weakneſs of the Limbs, languid Heavineſs of the whole Body, Wearineſs, Pains, Weakneſs of the Back, and all the vaſt Variety of Symptoms by which the Scurvy imitates and often lies concealed under the Appearance of the Rheumatiſm, and many other Diſeaſes.

And for ſtrengthening the Stomach, immediately creating a good Appetite, cauſing a regular and eaſy Digeſtion of Food, and curing all windy Effects and Diſorders of the firſt Paſſages (whence proceed Head-achs, Vapours and other Indiſpoſitions) no Bitters nor other Medicine upon Earth can compare with them, ſince beſides infallibly curing the Scurvy in all its Shapes and Appearances, they alſo aſſuredly and immediately cure the Green-ſickneſs in Virgins, Worms of all Kinds in young or old, and all other Chronick Diſeaſes, (which are chiefly occaſioned by Indigeſtion and ſtinking Crudities in the Stomach and Bowels) and thereby prevent Fevers, Agues, and other acute Illneſſes.

They are wonderfully Cordial and Reſtorative, ſtrengthen and enliven the whole Machine, and aſſoon as taken, make the Heart pleaſantly Lightſom, Brisk and Vigorous to admiration, and are good for all Sorts of Perſons, to preſerve as well as to reſtore found and healthy State of Body.

But the great Reputation theſe ſomuch fam'd and pleaſant Chymical Drops have ſo univerſally gain'd among Perſons of Faſhion for their ſuddenly and infallibly curing the Scurvy and all Scorbutick Humours, and other Chronick Diſeaſes, in ſuch an eaſy agreeable Manner, have occaſioned many to imitate them, but before not to be deceiv'd; but be ſure to have the Right, which is the Author's ſpecial Appointment, are to be had only at the Widow Stewoman's, at the Two Blue Poſts, in Haydon-Yard, in the Minories, at 3 s. 6 d. a Bottle, with Directions.

For the PALSY,

An infallible and ſpeedy Cure, by one ſingle Medicine, being a moſt pleaſant Chymical Tincture, to be taken in Drops,

WHICH gives inſtant Relief in all Paralytick or Nervous Indiſpoſitions, proceeding from what Cauſe ſoever; and alſo in all Weakneſſes, or Decays of Nature, whether from Old Age, or occaſioned by continual Weakneſs of Body, or any Irregularities of Living, ſuch as Debauching, Drinking, &c. whereby Nature is ſorely weakened, and diſabled in a Manner quite ſpoiled.

This infallible Chymical Tincture is endued with ſuch Specifick Qualities, that it inſtantly enters the Nerves, the principal Seat of all Complaints of a Paralytick Kind, reſtores natural Heat and Strength to a Degree conſiſtent with a perfect State of Health; and in a very little time perfectly cures the Paralytick Weakneſſes of the longeſt ſtanding; and alſo the ſevereſt or worſt Effects of it either on old or young, ſuch as ſhaking or trembling of the Limbs, Numbneſs, or even Deadneſs on any Part of the Body; as has been happily experienced by great Numbers of both Sexes, and all Ages, ſince its Publication.

As for any Weakneſſes or Decays of Nature, by Age or otherwiſe, this Tincture has not its Equal; it is ſafe in Operation, as not to give the leaſt Diſturbance in the leaſt, but in its Effects ſo ſtrong and prevalent, that all Decays and Weakneſſes of Nature, whether Paralytick, Convulſive, or any other Indiſpoſitions attending the Head and Nerves, are infantly relieved, and daily mended; ſo as in a very ſhort Time a perfect Cure is accompliſhed.

It is exceeding pleaſant to take, ſafe in Operation, perfectly agreeable to the Stomach and Palate, greatly helps Digeſtion, cauſes a good Appetite, revives and ſtrengthens the whole Human Frame, and is ſo ſafe and regular a Cordial for all Paralytick, Convulſive, and other Nervous Indiſpoſitions, that nothing in the World was ever yet known to come near it.

It is ſold by ſpecial Order of the Author, only at Mr. Markham's Toyſhop, the Seven Stars under St. Dunſtan's Church in Fleet-ſtreet, for 3 s. 6 d. each Bottle.
